

Corporate Goals

To provide the residential construction industry with quality mechanical systems at economical prices.

To participate in those areas of the residential construction market which will offer the greatest profit consistent with goal #1 and prudent financial management.

To develop a reputation of integrity in our relationships with customers, suppliers and employees.

To provide the stimulus and motivation for individual employees to produce to their maximum potential with emphasis on promotion within the company.