

E 290 - ORIENTATION

All new employees will receive an orientation to the Company, by Human Resources on their first day of work.

New employees are prohibited to start work in any capacity until they have gone through orientation.

They will also receive their job orientation and introduction to fellow employees on their first work day, or as soon as possible thereafter, by their immediate supervisor.